

December 21, 2011

<http://topbuls.com/new.php?n=359542>

Христо Велков от Брюксел е носителът на тазгодишната награда за ветроходно постижение "Кор Кароли". Дипломираният мениджър е преплавал 17 000 мили, или около 35 000 км, с яхтата си Serenite. Той е един от малкото българи, правили околосветско плаване с яхта. Първият е капитан Георги Георгиев и наградата е наречена на неговата ...

http://dariknews.bg/view_article.php?article_id=827140&audio_id=97644

Over 3,000 people have conquered the highest peak in the world, Everest. Only 250 are those who have circled the world alone by yacht. It says Christo Velkov, winner of this year's Golden Globes "Cor Caroli" which is awarded for the best Bulgarian sailing achievement. The prestigious award will be presented tonight at a ceremony. Seafarer, born 45 years ago in Madan, won the prestigious award after a three-year world tour. From October 2008 to December 2010 was skipper journey across nearly 17,500 sea miles, of which 5200 was alone. Has crossed the world from Australia to Marmaris. His first raid was linked to the crossing of the Mediterranean. In 2009 the Atlantic pass and landed in Guadeloupe. After visiting several islands in the Caribbean, his yacht "Sérénité" crosses the Panama Canal. After leaving Panama after 31 days before sailing Velkov reach the Marquesas Islands. Then he goes to Western Samoa, Fr. Fiji and Vanuatu island nation. The last voyage, and which marked the end of the round-trip is to the shores of the city of Cairns, Australia. Seafarer, who lived 20 years in Brussels and has devoted his career to philanthropic causes, says that after the trip is divided by their fears. "I saw that they were not based on anything and really live a happier life, after that my fear of it disappeared," said Velkov. Many beautiful memories Bulgarian away from Vanuatu - an island nation in the South Pacific, which previously was named the happiest country in the world. Velkov says that harmony to the world that local people have created is very delicate. It is known by the white people who go there that they must not talk much to their confusion that harmony. "Developments in them gradually. Like in the center of Varna Perched aliens," said the Navigator, who spent six months in Vanuatu. Although every island in Vanuatu has two or three active volcanoes and earthquakes everyday, local people feel happy. Electricity is only one city, but we have found dzhiesemite. "The charger is a solar battery dzhiesemite because they have no electricity. For them is nothing new to tell them something and they say something. Local people for millennia live so - speak of stone, wood and it is their responsibility. So a box to talk to them and she answered - is nothing new. The surprise is as you look and see dzhiesema time on the display. This concept did not have before," said Seafarer. Hristo Velkov stories and other curious history From Vanuatu, which you can hear the attached sound file . After the trip, inspired by the sea, nature and uniqueness of different cultures around the world Hristo Velkov wrote a book which reveals the experiences and reflections of a sailor, away from civilization. "Sinners and inner harmony: stories, sights and sounds of the South Seas" is the title of the book, which will be released in spring 2012, the annual award "Cor Caroli" was established in memory of Captain Georgi Georgiev - the first Bulgarian on their own around the world voyage, and named his yacht. Cor Caroli (Heart of Karl) is the name of the star, named in honor of Charlemagne. The prize is always awarded on December 20 - the date on which Cap. Georgiev started and finished the first Bulgarian lonely sailing tour of the Earth (1976-1977) yacht "Cor Caroli". Winners so far were 28 Bulgarian sailors.